

Situation	Solution	More information
Are you studying in Finland?	Would you like to work in Tourism Industry and have international working experience? If you have language skills and are flexible and motivated to adapt yourself to a new job and whole new cultural environment, you could challenge yourself and grab this exciting opportunity in Finland!
Where can I find open vacancies?	You can follow your University´s notice board and electronic platform and ask advices from your teachers. You also search open vacancies by visiting local unemployment office and their webpages We highly recommend you to upload your cv in English in Eures webpages for potential employers to find. EURES is the European Job Mobility Portal, check their website for more information Open vacancies can be tracked through many different media. There are several temporary work agencies and new mobile applications to connect employers and employees have been developed. Following social media is a very good way to stay up to date. LinkedIn is highly recommended, as well as professional groups in Facebook.	https://ec.europa.eu/eures/public/en/homepage Use the following words in search engines: matkailutyö, tourism work, working in tourism, working in Finland, matkailuala Most of the companies announce open vacancies on their own websites https://ec.europa.eu/eures/public/en/homepage https://hpl.fi/the-private-employment-agencies-association/ https://www.staffpoint.eu/ https://smilepalvelut.fi/# https://barona.fi/en/tyopaikat/

What kind of work is available	Tourism is known as an Industry full of opportunities. Most of the professionals have started their career in operative positions and then progressed towards more responsible works. Good way to start career in Tourism Industry is to continue from practical training during the studies to get employed in the same company. You might start with humble work and then proceed in your career. Finland is a small country in terms of population where it is quite easy to create a working network.	If you click yourself to www.moodoflearning.com web-page you will find more information about living and working in Finland. Professionals with good attitude have good opportunities to succeed in Finland as Tourism is one the fastest growing industries. There are vacancies available especially for waiters and cooks. There is also need for guides and assistants for outdoor activities.
What kind of skills are required?	Every employer has their own requirements, but all expect you to speak and understand English. In tourism related vacancies other language skills are also a great advantage. It always helps if you know some Finnish and are willing to learn more. Any previous experience and studies on this field are appreciated, as well as right kind of attitude.
Where can I find information about the salaries?	Collective agreements for the Restaurant, Hotel and Leisure Industry are universally applicable which means that the employers are legally required to apply at least the minimum terms and conditions to all its employees. There are also supplements which is good to consider as part of the salary.	All this information you can find in collective agreement via these links: http://netpaper.lonnberg.fi/pam/tes-en/hotel_pocket/#p=1 http://netpaper.lonnberg.fi/pam/tes-en/hotel_pocket/#p=20

I am EU citizen, can I work while studying?	If you are a citizen of an EU country, an EEA country, Switzerland or a Nordic country, you have the right to work during your studies without restrictions and you do not need permission to do so. Working can give you the right to Finnish social security	www.infofinland.fi
Can I work with the residence permit for studies?	The residence permit for studies enables you to work without restrictions if your work is related to your degree. This means practical training and thesis work. You also have a right to have other jobs but there are some restrictions to apply – read more information offered on Mood of Learning page. You can work without restrictions at the times when your educational institution offers no instruction. You may only work for an average of 25 hours per week during the academic terms. The number of working hours is not restricted on a weekly level. This means that you can adjust your weekly working hours during the academic term, as long as you work for 25 hours a week on average.	https://migri.fi/en/studying-in-finland

I have found a job in Finland, can I stay?	If you have studied and completed a degree in Finland, you may apply for a new residence permit on the basis of work immediately after you have found a job If your residence permit for studies is still valid and you have found a job, you may apply for an extended permit on the basis of work. Work must be your main reason for staying in Finland. Attach your degree certificate and your employment contract or a binding job offer to your application.	You can only get a residence permit if your employment contract complies with the collective agreement of the sector in which you are going to work. If there is no collective agreement in your sector, your employment contract must have the same the terms and conditions that, in the Finnish labour market, are applied to workers who have similar duties. After you have been granted a residence permit for work, you have a general right to work regardless of what you studied.
I have finished my studies and would like to start working or would like to establish my own business in Finland	After finishing your studies you may apply for a residence permit for seeking work if you are not yet employed. If you have studied and completed a degree in Finland but you have not yet found a job that would begin before your residence permit for studies expires, you can apply for an extended permit to look for work or to start a business. When you find employment, apply for a residence permit on the basis of work. If you start a business, apply for a residence permit for an entrepreneur. You can start working immediately after you have found a job or started a business.	https://migri.fi/en/after-graduation Please notice that you can get an extended permit to look for work or to start a business only if you have a residence permit on the basis of studies. You must apply before your residence permit for studies expires. The income requirement is the same as it is for a residence permit for studies.

How do I pay taxes in Finland	Paying tax is everyone's responsibility in Finland. Your work will be taxed progressively, whereby the tax is paid in the same way as Finns are taxed. Progressive taxation means that your tax treatment depends on your income – the more you earn, the more tax you pay. The tax office will issue a tax card, and the employer will withhold tax from the salary accordingly. Ask for possible special treatments for students considering your home country.	https://www.vero.fi/en/individuals/tax-cards-and-tax-returns/arriving_in_finland/work_in_finland/ Salaries and other payments are handled electronically in Finland, so you will need a bank account. For that you need your passport or ID card as well as your Finnish personal identification code.
I have studied in Finland, can I come back to work after some time	If you have completed a degree in Finland several years ago and have left Finland since then, you may still apply for a residence permit on the basis of work as a person who has completed a degree in Finland. There are no time limits for submitting a residence permit application on the basis of work after receiving a degree.	https://migri.fi/en/after-graduation
Happy End	Finland has been selected several times as the happiest country in the world. Hopefully you would like to stay in Finland to start your own story of happiness with us!	https://www.weforum.org/agenda/2019/03/finland-is-the-world-s-happiest-country-again/
	This page can also be of your interest:	https://www.ihhelsinki.fi/